

List of Common Household Hazardous Waste Products

Cleaning Products

Aerosols
All-purpose cleaners
Ammonia
Bleach
Degreasers
Disinfectants
Drain opener
Oven cleaner
Pool and spa chemicals
Septic tank cleaners
Spot and stain remover
Toilet bowl cleaner
Tub and tile cleaner

Automotive Products

Antifreeze
Brake fluid
Car batteries
Car wax and cleaners
Carburetor cleaner
Engine degreaser
Fuel additives
Fuel filters
Motor oil
Oil filters
Transmission fluid
Windshield wiper fluid

Pesticide and Insecticide Products

Bug/insect killers
Flea collar
Flea repellent
Lice shampoo
Mothballs
Rat and mouse poison
Slug poison

Home Improvement Products

Adhesives and glues
Asphalt and roofing tar
Caulk and sealant
Epoxy
Formaldehyde
Furniture polish and wax
Household batteries
Lubricating oils
Metal cleaners
PCBs
Rechargeable batteries
Rust remover
Turpentine and solvents
Wood and furniture stain

Painting Products

Spray cans
Art paints
Fabric dyes
Marine bottom paint
Paint strippers
Paint Varnish
Varnish and lacquer

Misc. Products

Ballasts
Chemistry sets
Nail polish and remover
Fire extinguishers
Fluorescent light bulbs
Fluorescent light tubes
Hair color
Hair spray
Lead
Mercury
Pepper spray
Photographic chemicals
Shampoo
Sharps/Needles
Shoe polish

Lawn and Garden Products

Fertilizer
Fungicides
Herbicide
Moss control
Weed killers
Wood preservatives

Other Flammable Products

Butane and propane tanks
Charcoal
Diesel
Gas cylinders
Gasoline/fuel
Kerosene
Lighter fluid

All the items listed should be properly disposed of at your local household hazardous waste collection facility

Your local household hazardous waste facility will be based on residency

Never transport more than 15 gallons or 125 lbs. of HHW at one time

Gasoline needs to be transported in an approved safety container

To find your local household hazardous waste collection facility visit

WasteFreeSD.org